THE SYMPOSIUM

The 13th International Symposium on “Environmental Pollution and its Impact on Life in the Mediterranean Region” is organised by the Mediterranean Scientific Association of Environmental Protection (MESAEP) in collaboration with other international and national institutions.

Previous symposia were held in Athens, Greece (1981), Crete, Greece (1983), Istanbul, Turkey (1985), Kavala, Greece (1987), Blanes, Spain (1989), Como, Italy (1991), Antibes, France (1993), Rhodes, Greece (1995), Sorrento, Italy (1997), Alicante, Spain (1999), Limassol, Cyprus (2001) and Antalya, Turkey (2003).

Especially the 13th Symposium will be held in parallel (same dates and different halls of the same location) with the 2nd Environmental Conference of Macedonia (Association of Greek Chemists, www.eex.gr).

The Executive Committee of MESAEP, the Steering and the National Organizing Committees have the pleasure to forward this invitation to attend the 13th International MESAEP Symposium that will be held in Thessaloniki, Greece, from October 8 to 12, 2005.

OBJECTIVES

The objectives of the symposium are to provide opportunities for scientists of different countries to:

- exchange recent results related to the processes of pollution in the Mediterranean region
- discuss current technological and legal measures to avoid or reduce the degradation of the environment
- present suggestions and recommendations to the regulatory authorities on environmental quality and safety in the Mediterranean and other neighbouring countries.

MAIN SUBJECTS

- Air, Water and Soil Pollution and Control
- Waste
- Transboundary Pollution
- Natural Ecosystems
- Health and Environment
- Environmental Management and Planning
- Environmental Policy
- Environmental Education

ORAL & POSTER PRESENTATIONS

The program of the symposium will include oral presentations as well as posters. Oral and poster contributions will be regarded as scientifically equivalent in the program. Special focus will be devoted to the brief presentation of posters of original papers in full audience sessions. All presentations (oral and posters) should be in English.

PAPERS PUBLICATION

A book of abstracts will be distributed to all participants upon registration at the Symposium. Poster or lecture will be accepted if at least one of the authors is registered and present at the symposium for personal communication. The Steering Committee of the Symposium will notify the authors on the acceptance and on the form of presentation. All papers presented at the symposium will be eligible, upon refereeing, for publication in the peer-reviewed international journal FRESNIUS ENVIRONMENTAL BULLETIN (FEB), the official journal of MESAEP.

SYMPOSIUM LOCATION

Thessaloniki is the capital of Macedonia and the second largest city in Greece following Athens, with a population over 1.000.000 inhabitants. It is a major commercial port with its own Universities, and a significant industrial, trade and business centre.

It was founded in 316 B.C. by Kassandros and named after his wife Thessaloniki, sister of Alexander the Great. During the Byzantine empire, Thessaloniki became the second largest city after Constantinople, and important, illustrious, secular, ecclesiastical and monastic buildings were constructed within the city.

The Byzantine monuments, along with those from classical antiquity, Hellenistic years and the Roman period as well as those of Muslim and Jewish origin and even more recent architectural accomplishments, all bear testimony to the historically multi-cultural and cosmopolitan character of this Greek city.

Thessaloniki was freed from Ottoman rule in 1912 and since then follows a dynamic course which, particularly during the last few years, has ensured it plays a leading role in the development of the whole area.

The Symposium will be held in the historical building “Apothiki Delta” of the Port of Thessaloniki. The building “Apothiki Delta” has been renovated as Congress Hall in the framework of Thessaloniki Cultural Capital of Europe in 1997.

ACCOMODATION

Rooms at favourable prices have been reserved in the centre of the city, near to the Symposium building “Apothiki Delta” of Thessaloniki Port. Symposium participants are requested to contact directly the hotels and reserve rooms using the code “MESAEP-EEX” as soon as possible and preferably before the end of July. Be informed that during October there are many international exhibitions in Thessaloniki and consequently there is not high availability of hotel rooms. For detailed information on hotels see the Hotels Info Table.

VISA

Visa is required from some countries. Please check the Greek Consulates or the official representatives of the Government of Greece in your country. No visa is required for citizens from the European Union and the most European Countries.

FELLOWSHIP

A limited number of scientists from Balkan and African countries will be supported financially on the basis of paper submission and after request.
